

Jacek Białek

Counsellor, Ministry of Development Funds and Regional Policy, Poland

Jacek has been employed in the Polish public administration for almost 30 years, of which last 16 years he has been dealing with issues related to regional and cohesion policy. Within the Unit of Territorial Analyses, he is responsible for i.a. preparing diagnostic inputs to strategic documents elaborated at the Ministry of Development Funds and Regional Policy. He also presents the results of research by the Ministry in the area of cohesion policy's impact on the socio-economic development of Poland and of its regions to, among others, representatives of rating agencies.