

Kateřina Broža

Kateřina Broža is the Director of Strategic Communication and Advocacy at the analytical institute STEM. As an analyst, she focuses on the labour market and social issues. She is the founder of the social enterprise O KROK, which aims to employ people with disabilities in the open labour market. In 2024, she received the international Sozial Marie award for social innovators.

Co-funded by the European Union

MINISTRY OF REGIONAL DEVELOPMENT CZ

EVALUATION
UNIT NCA